2. PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal office of the CIO is in England.

3. OBJECTS

The Objects of the CIO are the advancement of the arts, culture, heritage and science in East Sussex (which for the purposes of this Constitution shall include Brighton and Hove), in particular by assisting in the use, maintenance and improvement of archive services at The Keep, Woollards Way, Brighton BN1 9BP ("The Keep").

4. POWERS

The CIO has power to do anything which is calculated to further its objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the CIO has power:

- 4.2 to raise funds (but not by means of taxable trading) in order to make grants for the purchase of documents of an archival value and of equipment;
- 4.3 to provide assistance, whether financial or physical, in the conservation, digitising, transcribing and/or otherwise copying of documents of an archival value (whether held at The Keep or remaining in private or institutional ownership, but so that the public might have greater access to such documents or copies thereof);

- 4.4 to act as a link between the public and The Keep including those using the facilities at The Keep;
- 4.5 to assist, by funding and/or by the provision of voluntary help, projects designed to increase the awareness of the work of The Keep, the role of archives, and the history of East Sussex;
- 4.6 to stimulate an interest in archives and the history of East Sussex by arranging meetings, visits, lectures etc;
- 4.7 to assist the work at The Keep by the provision of working parties and individual voluntary help, including the payment of expenses to volunteers;

 - (a) a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary of the CIO;
 - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the CIO.
- 5.3 Nothing in this clause shall prevent a charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 6.

11.2.9 The CIO must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the members calling a general meeting by reason of the failure of the charity trustees to duly call the meeting, but the CIO shall be entitled to be indemnified by the charity trustees who were responsible for such failure.

11.3 Notice of general meetings

11.3.1 The charity trustees, or, as the case may be, the relevant members of the CIO must give at least 14 clear days notice of any general meeting to all of the members and to any charity trustee of the CIO who is not a member.

11.3.4 Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid, and posted; or that an electronic form of notice was properly addressed and sent, shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Notice shall be deemed to be given 48 hours after it was posted or sent.

11.3.5 The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated because a member who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of accidental omission by the CIO.
